

KHAS T'AN HORSEMANSHIP

About Us

Kyla Strange is the owner and operator of Khas T'an Horsemanship.

Kyla has worked very hard to maintain high levels of certification and qualifications integral to Khas T'an Horsemanship services. She brings years of knowledge and expertise making your experience safe, enjoyable, memorable and fun.

Having horses at a very young age, Kyla's passion to pursue high goals in her horsemanship has been paramount to the ongoing development and success of Khas T'an Horsemanship services. Kyla is primarily influenced by the legacy that follows master horsemen Ray Hunt and Tom and Bill Dorrance and continues to pursue study with the students who were educated and taught by these legendary horsemen.

Kyla has chronicled 1000's of hours of direct horsemanship study and riding instruction and invested exorbitant time riding and studying with world renowned, well-known and talented horsemen and women. She rode colts, provided contract cowboy services and assisted on various large-scale beef cattle ranches.

Not only has Kyla backed and developed scores of colts and horses, Kyla has local, regional, provincial and national earnings in various competitive horse disciplines based in the West. She has provided educational services and support to horses and horse owners in New Brunswick, British Columbia, Alberta, various states in the USA and Switzerland.

A more detailed horsemanship portfolio of Kyla is provided below.

Based permanently in the traditional territory of Wolastoqey Nation (Fredericton, New Brunswick, Canada), Kyla is offering 'horse first' philosophy Colt Starting, Horse Development, Horsemanship Lessons and Workshops.
